

Tomorrow our service will be ONLINE only at 9:30 AM. We are not gathering in person. Pastor Jared will be teaching. Why?

The forecast for tomorrow is calling for a chance of thunderstorms tomorrow during service time with strong gusty winds possible. We had a backup plan for moving inside with limited seating reservations, but on Friday, I tested positive for COVID-19. It seems traceable to one of two family events we had on the weekend of 7/18 & 19. Although my family has worn masks consistently at church gatherings, we recognize that there's still a possibility that some have been exposed to the virus and may become infected. Thus, out of the abundance of caution, we've decided to cancel all in-person gatherings this week, including the Joshua Aaron concert that was scheduled for Sunday evening. We appreciate your prayers.

In Christ,

Pastor Doug
